PART II-A Notifications relating to Minor Administrations

THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF BRITISH BALUCHISTAN

NOTIFICATION

Quetta, the 5th June 1947

No 97-FS|47.—In exercise of the powers delegated to him in Government of India, Department of Food, Notification No. Py-603 (2)I, dated the 21st October, 1946, with the previous concurrence of the Central Government and in supersession of the British Baluchistan Foodgrains Control Order, 1944, issued by him on the 4th November, 1944, as subsequently amended from time to time the Chief Commissioner is pleased under section 3 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (XXIV of 1946) as applied to British Baluchistan by virtue of the Government of India, External Affairs Department, Notification No. 341-BPG, dated the 28th November 1946, to make the following order namely :—

1. (1) This order may be called the British Baluchistan Food Grains Control Order, 1947.

(2) It extends to the whole of British Baluchistan and shall come into force at once.

2. In this Order unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context :—

(a) “Food Grain” means such one or more of the commodities specified in the First Schedule to this Order as the Chief Commissioner may from time to time by Notification in the official Gazette declare to be foodgrain to which this order applies.

(b) “Form” means a form as set forth in the Second Schedule to this Order.

(c) “Purchase from the producer in wholesale quantities” means purchase on any one day in quantities exceeding five maunds of any foodgrains from a person who produces the grain either himself or through a tenant and includes purchase by any person on behalf of another as a Commission Agent or as an arhatiya.

(d) “Purchase in wholesale quantities” means purchase in quantities exceeding ten maunds of any foodgrain on any one day from a person other than a producer or his tenant and includes purchase by any person on behalf of another as a Commission Agent or any arhatiya.

(e) “Sale in wholesale quantities” means sale in quantities exceeding ten maunds of any foodgrain to any one person on any one day and includes sale by any person on behalf of an other as a Commission Agent or as an arhatiya.

(f) “Storage for sale in wholesale quantities” means storage in quantities exceeding 50 maunds for purchase or sale whether wholesale or retail and includes storage by any person on behalf of an other as a Commission Agent or as an arhatiya and storage by an employer for the purpose of supplying, on payment or otherwise food or food stuffs to any of his employees.

(g) “Director of Food Supplies” means the Director of Food Supplies in Baluchistan or any other officer appointed for the time being to carry on the duties of the Director of Food Supplies in Baluchistan.

3. (1) No person shall engage in any undertaking which involves the purchase from the producer, purchase, sale or storage for sale in wholesale quantities of any foodgrain except under and in accordance with a license issued in that behalf by the Director of Food Supplies. Provided further that the Director of Food Supply may, by special or general order, exempt subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order, a purchaser other than a retail dealer from the operation of this clause ;

(2) For the purpose of this clause any person who stores any foodgrain in quantities exceeding 10 maunds shall unless the contrary is proved be deemed to store the foodgrain for the purpose of sale.

4. Licenses issued under this Order shall be in Form A and shall specify :-

(a) The foodgrain or foodgrains in which the licensee may deal.

(b) The place or places at which the licensee may carry on the licensed undertaking.

(c) The maximum quantity of each of the foodgrains which the licensee may store at any one time.

5. Application for licenses under this Order shall be made in Form B to the Director of Food Supplies in Baluchistan.

6. (1) No person being the holder of a license issued, or deemed to be issued under this Order shall contravene any of the conditions mentioned in Form A and if any such person contravenes any of the said conditions then without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, his license may be cancelled by order of the Director of Food Supplies.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (1) the Chief Commissioner, may, in special circumstances without giving any previous notice or without assigning any reason suspend or cancel a license issued or deemed to be issued under his Order.

(3) A person whose license has been cancelled or suspended under any of the provisions of this Order may be permitted by the authority cancelling or suspending the license to dispose of his stocks of foodgrains within such time, in such manner and at such prices as may be prescribed by that authority.

(4) The suspension or cancellation of a license under this Order shall have effect from the date on which such suspension or cancellation was ordered.

(5) When a license is suspended under any of the provisions of this Order, the Order of suspension shall set the period thereof and may also state the conditions under which the suspension will be removed.

(6) An appeal shall lie to the Chief Commissioner from an Order cancelling a license or suspending it for a period of more than three months under the provisions of Sub-clause (1) of this clause.

7. Any person authorised by the Chief Commissioner or the Director of Food Supplies in this behalf may enter upon and inspect the premises and may also inspect the Account books and stocks kept in any shop, godown or other place used or believed to be used for purchase from the producer sale or storage for sale in wholesale quantities of any foodgrains contrary to the provisions of this order.

8. If any person contravenes the provisions of clause (3) or clause (6) of the Order then, without prejudice to any other punishment to which he may be liable, any court trying the offence shall order that any stock of foodgrains together with the packages and covering thereof in respect of which the Court is satisfied that the offence has been committed, shall be forfeited to His Majesty, unless, or reasons to be recorded in writing, it is of opinion that the the direction should not be made in respect of the whole or a part of the property.

9. Except in such areas as the Chief Commissioner may from time to time notify in the official Gazette nothing in this Order shall apply to the sale or storage for sale by any person of any foodgrain produced by himself or by his tenant.
